

Youth Work Tutors

Part time, variable hours
£25.40 an hour (including holiday pay)

We have an exciting opportunity for experienced Youth Work Tutors to join a pan-Wales organisation committed to serving the adult population of Wales with inspirational, life changing opportunities. Addysg Oedolion Cymru | Adult Learning Wales is a democratic, independent and voluntary movement, committed to widening participation, promoting active citizenship and skills development and providing the best quality learning, working collaboratively with its partners.

About the Job

You will plan, prepare and deliver courses and learning programmes, both online and face to face, in accordance with learner needs and Addysg Oedolion Cymru | Adult Learning Wales's Quality processes and procedures. You will deliver high quality learning using a range of teaching methods and use a range of appropriate assessment methods in line with learner needs and awarding body requirements. You will ensure that learners are provided with clear and constructive feedback within appropriate timescales.

About you

A minimum Level 3 teaching qualification and a professional qualification in youth work are essential for this post. You will be a Level 6 professionally qualified Youth Work practitioner, with the ability to teach and assess through online platforms. You will have experience of working within the youth and community work sector, and of planning and delivering learning. An understanding of quality systems and self-assessment, qualifications in Adult Education Guidance and Internal Quality, and the ability to speak Welsh would be desirable.

About our benefits

There are attractive benefits on offer for the right candidate including:-

- £25.40 per hour (including holiday pay)
- Flexible hours
- Regular travel throughout Wales
