

WE'RE LOOKING FOR...

- Volunteer Board Members
- Volunteer Treasurer

MESS UP THE MESS (MUTM) is an award winning youth theatre based in Ammanford and the Amman Valley. Since 2005, MUTM has worked with some of the most vulnerable and isolated young people in our communities, using theatre and the arts as powerful tools to engage and empower them to make their voices heard.

We're looking for people from all walks of life, but you need to be enthusiastic about the arts and their potential to change young people's lives. If you've got skills or experience in finance, business planning, marketing, fundraising or social enterprise or you just want a chance to make a difference, we'd like to hear from you.

As a Board Member, you will play a pivotal role in shaping our strategy, governance, and presence within the creative third sector.
